

SSMC won Workplace Safety and Health (WSH) Performance Silver Award 2014

Since 2012, SSMC has been honored to win annually the WSH Performance Silver Award. Constituted by the Workplace Safety and Health Council / Ministry of Manpower, this award recognizes SSMC's continuous effort in achieving excellence in workplace safety and health performance.

The Award Ceremony held in Singapore's Marina Bay Sands Grand Ballroom on 18-Jul-14 gathered WSH supervisors, WSH officers and companies with innovative WSH solutions and excellent WSH performance. SSMC is proud to be one of the 60 companies receiving the WSH Performance Silver Award.

“It is my aim to provide a high level of safety and healthy workplace to protect our colleagues and partners. Together, we are committed to the continuous improvement of health and safety standards in all areas of our daily work environment. Safety is part of SSMC’s Behavioural based culture, which is good for our people and good for our business.” Jagadish CV, CEO of SSMC.

Credit goes to each employee of SSMC in imbibing the safety mindset in daily work practices, in line with our Management Team’s commitment to safety excellence.
